SWAMI VIRUPAKSHA is an advanced meditation teacher with the Art of Living global movement.

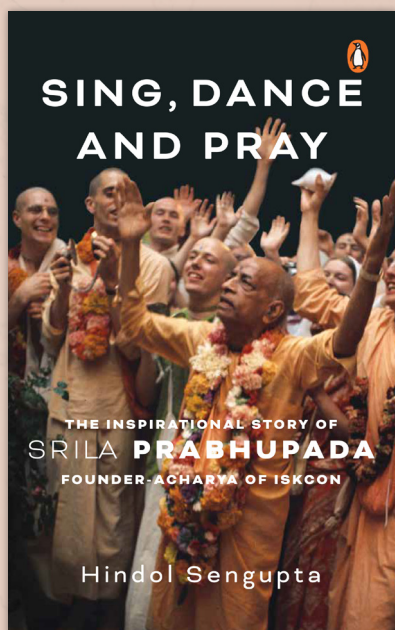

THE TIGER'S PAUSE

THE UNTOLD STORY OF GURUDEV SRI SRI RAVI SHANKAR'S PEACE EFFORTS IN SRI LANKA

SWAMI VIRUPAKSHA

The final stages of the Sri Lankan civil war seen through the lens of Sri Sri Ravi Shankar's peace initiatives

As the fourth phase of the twenty-six-year-long civil war in Sri Lanka was about to begin, Gurudev Sri Sri Ravi Shankar, founder of the Art of Living, visited the island nation with a singular aim: to bring peace to its citizens while trying to mediate between Prabhakaran, leader of the Liberation Tigers of Tamil Eelam (LTTE), and the government. The Tiger's Pause provides a sweeping view of Gurudev's endeavours towards a ceasefire agreement, and the ups and downs of a country's quest for peace. This narrative of the Sri Lankan people gives us a sense of what it takes to understand and address a shared trauma.

HINDOL SENGUPTA is an award-winning author of nine books.

SING, DANCE AND PRAY

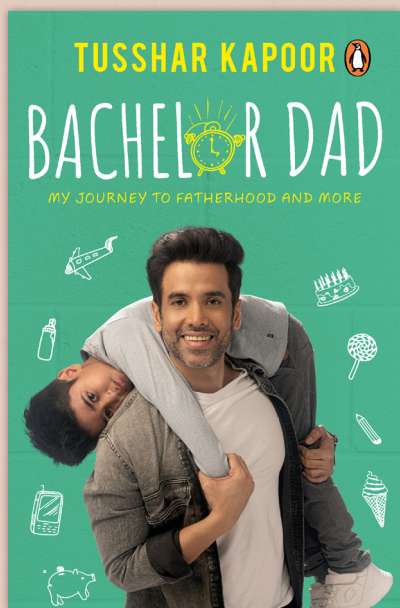

THE INSPIRATIONAL STORY OF SRILA PRABHUPADA, FOUNDER-ACHARYA OF ISKCON

HINDOL SENGUPTA

The story of the man who founded ISKCON

Bhaktivedanta Swami Srila Prabhupada entered the port of New York City on 17 September 1965 on a mission to introduce the ancient teachings of Vedic India to mainstream America. Before Srila Prabhupada passed away at the age of eighty-one on 14 November 1977, his mission had been successful. He had founded the International Society for Krishna Consciousness (ISKCON), colloquially known as the 'Hare Krishna Movement', and saw it grow into a worldwide confederation of more than 100 temples, ashrams and cultural centres.

This is the authorized biography of Srila Prabhupada, and it is bound to put you on a path of self-realization.

TUSSHAR KAPOOR is an Indian film actor and producer who has appeared in hits like Khakee, The Dirty Picture, Shootout at Lokhandwala and Shor in the City, among others.

BACHELOR DAD

MY JOURNEY TO FATHERHOOD AND MORE

TUSSHAR KAPOOR

Poignant and inspirational memoirs of India's first celebrity to become a single dad via surrogacy

The year 1998. A superstar dad, a successful sister, a growing production empire. Yet a young Tusshar Kapoor was sitting far away from the arc lights in the US, until circumstances led him to return to India to pursue a career in entertainment. Little did he know that he would make a life-altering choice while on a car journey that would eventually make him India's first celebrity single dad. Written in a frank, fun and incisive first-person narrative, Bachelor Dad delves into the process of raising a child as a single man in India, how the search for the perfect soulmate doesn't end after having a child and how Tusshar's son, Lakshya, changed his life forever.

MOVEMINT MEDICINE YOUR JOURNEY TO PEAK HEALTH

RAJAT CHAUHAN AND DARREN PLAYER

Exercise doesn't have to be excruciating

Rajat Chauhan and Darren Player focus on a widely ignored element of exercising: the mind. This book goes against the grain by drawing the reader's attention to mental health and its importance on one's physical self. Never preachy and always funny, MoveMint Medicine is the only book one needs to read to get in shape.

RAJAT CHAUHAN and DARREN PLAYER are doctors of sports medicine.

FICTION

THE MUSLIM VANISHES

SAEED NAQVI

What would India be without its Muslim people?

The great poet Ghalib, part of a long tradition of eclectic liberalism, found Benaras so compelling that he wrote his longest poem on the holy city. If we take Ghalib and his followers out of the equation, will Hindustan become something quite new? This razor-sharp and funny play by Saeed Naqvi attempts to answer that question.

SAEED NAQVI is an Indian journalist, and author of Reflections of an Indian Muslim, The Last Brahmin, Prime Minister and Being the Other: The Muslim in India.

ANNUS HORRIBILIS

AVINAB DATTA-ARENG

A standout debut collection of poetry

Annus Horribilis is concerned with the violence of thinking, alone. The voices in these poems move through relationships, family, friendship, external disintegration, the labour of loving, being loved and of caring, where they are constantly confronted with the familiar turning foreign, the quotidian becoming a scene of absolute hostility, and where a word otherwise spoken easily becomes incommunicable.

AVINAB DATTA-ARENG has been a recipient of the Charles Pick fellowship and the Vijay Nambisan fellowship. He's also the editor of nether.

THE BLACK MAGIC WOMEN

MOUSHUMI KANDALI

Ten powerful tales of magic of people from the North-east

In The Black Magic Women, the author brings her characters out of Assam and places them in the mainstream, capturing their struggles to retain their inherent 'Assameseness' as they try to assimilate. The stories highlight issues that range from racial discrimination to sexual harassment to the existential and ideological dilemma induced by a complex socio-political scenario.

MOUSHUMI KANDALI is a bilingual short story writer, art historian and translator.

PARBINA RASHID (tr.) is a senior journalist with the Tribune, Chandigarh.

GEOFFREY JONES is the Isidor Straus Professor of Business History at the Harvard Business School.

TARUN KHANNA is the Jorge Paulo Lemann Professor at the Harvard Business School, and the first director of Harvard's Lakshmi Mittal and Family South Asia Institute.

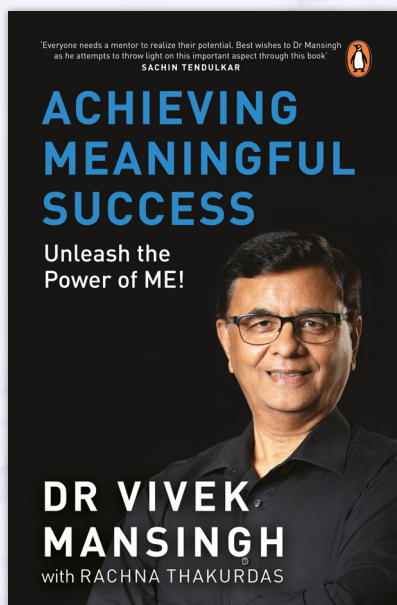

LEADERSHIP TO LAST

HOW GREAT LEADERS LEAVE LEGACIES BEHIND

GEOFFREY JONES AND TARUN KHANNA

Based on top Harvard professors' in-depth interviews with the finest leaders in India and Asia

Society tends to glorify the get-rich-quick entrepreneur—who builds a company, takes it public and then (maybe) contributes to charity. In Leadership to Last, Geoffrey Jones and Tarun Khanna interview iconic leaders in India who have demonstrated leadership to last. There are leaders from South Asia and other emerging markets as well to illustrate that the ideas Indian entrepreneurs speak about are echoed by their counterparts in the Global South. All these magnates—Ratan Tata, Anu Aga, Adi Godrej, Kiran Mazumdar-Shaw, Devi Shetty and Rahul Bajaj, to name a few—have built, to general acclaim and acknowledgement, organizations that are seen as forward-looking and innovative. They subscribe to a code of ethics and contribute to the betterment of society. The authors demonstrate that this is a lot harder to achieve than unicorn status.

SUBHASH CHANDRA GARG was a member of the Indian Administrative Service for more than thirty-six years. He served as secretary of economic affairs, finance secretary and power secretary with the Government of India.

THE $10 TRILLION DREAM

THE STATE OF THE INDIAN ECONOMY AND THE POLICY REFORMS AGENDA

SUBHASH CHANDRA GARG

Reforms that will make India a $10-trillion economy by the mid-30s

India rightly aspires to be an upper-middle-income economy, with its vast workforce gainfully employed and having a decent standard of living. This, however, is a challenging proposition as India continues to grapple with major economic policy issues. This book thematically explores the critical policy issues India faces today and suggests reforms for India to become a $10-trillion economy by the mid-2030s. It analyses India's macroeconomy in the light of its evolution since Independence and covers the performance of the Indian economy on macro parameters of growth, inflation, monetary management, credit management, foreign capital inflows, fiscal management and other important macroeconomic fundamentals.
